Explore the subject

This book contains 20 different pictures. Look for the features that make each subject special. Each picture has a short fact, with its source listed at the back.

Print and colour

Use the A4 edition with matching paper. Print at actual size (100%). For markers, use one-sided printing and place a spare sheet underneath. Physical printing has not been tested.

Use the matching guide

Every guide page has the same outlines as its colouring page. The guide shows one possible palette. You can notice the suggested colours or choose your own.

Try the Colouring Studio

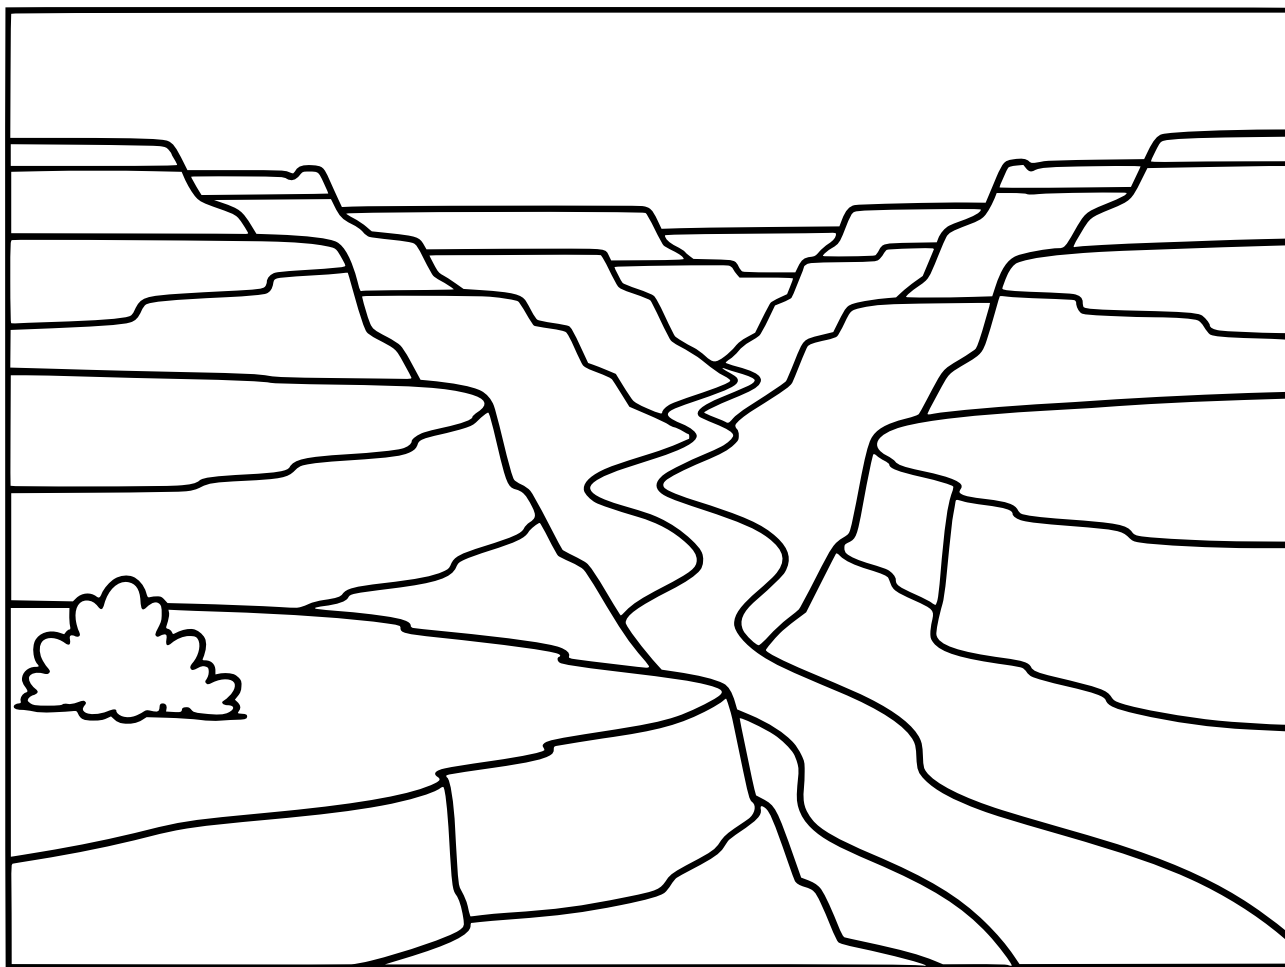

Open the ZIP and visit puddleleafstudio.com/studio/. Choose Load a bought book and select the included .colourbook file. The Studio imports that companion file, not PDFs or ZIPs. Your drawings stay in this browser on this device; export finished pictures as backups. Zoom in when colouring fine details.

About the pictures

These are simplified illustrations for colouring. The short facts describe the specific subject or illustrated type.

Grand Canyon, USA

PICTURE 01 OF 20

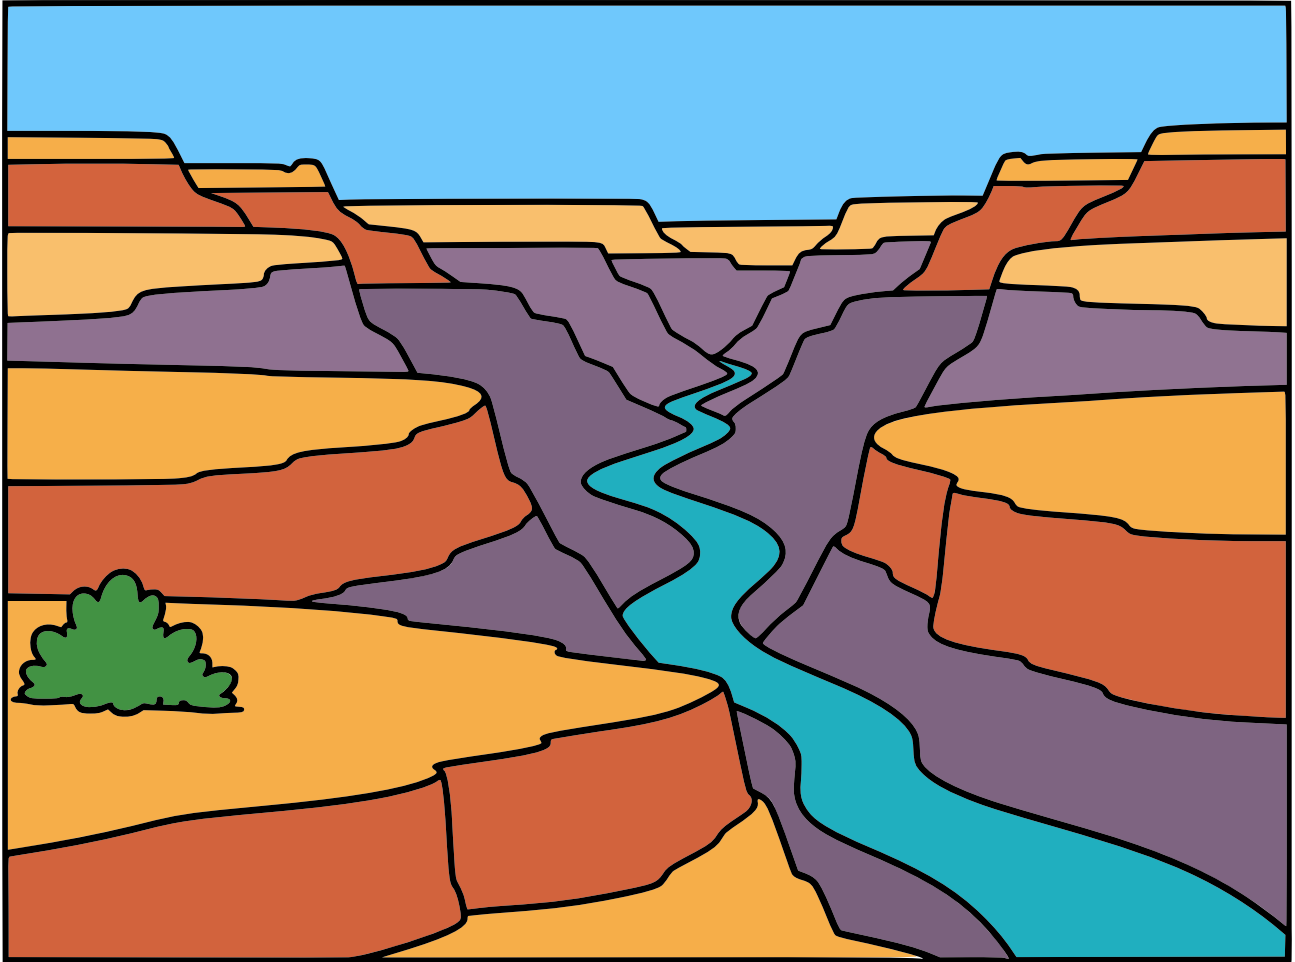

DID YOU KNOW?

The Grand Canyon is like an enormous history book made of rock. Even the layers at its rim are older than dinosaurs, while its oldest rocks are about 1.8 billion years old!
